

William J. Wiggins

Broker Associate

Specializing in land sales and acquisitions, Bill Wiggins joined Coldwell Banker Commercial R.E.S.I. with over 18 years of experience in Colorado commercial real estate. His experience includes the full range of real estate brokerage, from being president of a full service brokerage company to being general manager of the commercial development division of a national corporation.

Prior to Coldwell Banker Commercial, Bill was affiliated with Griffin Doyle & Associates, where he consummated more than $7 million worth of successful sales and leases. His list of clients include United Bank, Prudential, First Interstate, Nations Bank, Western Federal, the FDIC and RTC.

His solid real estate background is supported by a degree in Business Administration from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. As a member of the National Association of REALTORS, he was designated as a CCIM (Certified Commercial Investment Manager). He holds a membership in the Urban Land Institute. He is the past Vice Chairman of the Aurora Chamber of Commerce, a past Director of the United Banks of Aurora, and past President of the Aurora Rotary.

His thorough knowledge of the development process qualifies him in bringing together planners, architects, government officials, lawyers and accountants in reaching the most profitable and effective use of land for both buyers and sellers.
